Conference Registration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Save $100 by registering before September 4, 2024, for the in-person event. Members save big! Join the IACP to qualify for the lower, first-time member attendee rate and save $255 compared to the non-member rate. Speakers presenting on educational workshops can register for a complimentary 1-day pass or a discounted full conference pass at a rate of $350. 	$
Transportation to/ from Boston	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The IACP has established airfare discounts with Delta and United Airlines. Visit our Boston Travel information page at www.theIACPconference.org for discount instructions. 	$
Lodging	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Book through the IACP's official housing provider, onPeak, to secure the best hotel rate. Reservations are first-come, first-served, and hotel inventory is updated regularly. Reserve your hotel room early to ensure availability in the IACP hotel block. 	$
Transportation during IACP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Complimentary shuttle service is provided between the convention center and official conference hotels that are not within walking distance of the convention center. From taxis, mass transit, and even bicycles, Boston has many different modes of transportation to get you around town. 	$
Meals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> IACP has arranged for concession stands with a variety of food options to be available throughout the conference. For per diem purposes, meals are not provided at IACP functions. Full conference registration includes access to Chiefs Night (Monday, October 21) where heavy hors d'oeuvres are provided. Tickets for the Annual Banquet dinner, taking place Tuesday, October 22, must be purchased separately. 	$
Parking	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are many parking garages near the BCEC. Parking rates are subject to change based on activity in and around the BCEC. Meet Boston recommends booking convenient and affordable parking in advance through SpotHero, the nation's leading parking reservations app. 	$
